June 7,1980

Dear alexandee Nunnelley:

I am writting to see if maybe you could help me in some way in finding some of my husband's family.

I know this may be just a shot in the dark, but figured it was worth a try anyway.I am working on a family tree. I only have back to my husband's great grandfather, and have no dates on him, but will list what I have and maybe if you can't help me,you could pass this letter on to some one that can.
The great grandfather, was Pascal A.Nunnelley, and he married Sarah A. Dodson,daughter of Edmon Dodson and Rebecca Fuller Dodson.I have no dates on either,except that Sarah A.Dodson Nunnelley,was left a widow before she was 39 years old,because the 1880 census of Cleburne County, Alabama, lists her as a widow. Brinard Pascal was 4 years old and was the baby of the family.I have him born the year of 1876.
I have listed as childrem of Pascal & Sarah Dodson Nunnelley,the following.

1. George Washington Nunnelley born June 12,1859
2.Nancy Evoline Nunnelley born May 24,1860
3. William Edward Orasha Nunnelley born June 26,1862
4. Flourinda Ann Nunnelley born March 24,1866
5. John J.Nunnelley born Dec.27,1867
6. Mary Emma Rebecca Nunnelley born March 1,1875
7. Brinard Pascal Nunnelley born 1876

William Edward Orasha Nunnelley, who was my Husband's grandfather was born in Alabama, so I figured the rest must of been. William married Amanda Isabell Land in 1888 where ? She was born in Alabama, Aug.11, 1866,as far as I know. I would really like to find out who the parents of Pascal A.Nunnelley were. And it may be spelled different ways,as I have run across, Nunley, Nunnelly, Nunnelley. As far as I know Sarah A. Dodson Nunnelley came from a family of 13 childrem. Her father Edmon Dodson was married 3 times. First to Rebecca Fuller, whom he had the children by. 2nd to Elizabeth Avery, 3rd to Christanna Powell. This branch of the Dodson's moved from Virginia to Georgia, Fayette County. which later became Cleburne County. Edmon Dodson was the son of Daniel & Sarah Peters Dodson. Edmon had the following children.
1. Salina Dodson Nov.8,1818 2. James Monroe Dodson April 1,1819
3. Emoline Dodson Dec.29,1821 4. Caroline Dodson Jan.24,1823
5. Adoline Dodson Nov.4,1825 6. Daniel Dodson March 4,1828
7. Mary Ann Dodson Nov.12,1829 8. John Peter Dodson 9. M.Dodson
10. A.Dodson 11. Rebecca Dodson 12. Edmon Dodson Jr. 13. Sarah A.Dodson.
I would like to have any information on the Dodson's and Nunnelley's that I can get. And also if you know of any Land's anywhere send names & addresses or what ever you can.
Jacob Land born 1810 South Carolina,married 1829 South Carolina,died 1880 Chicksaw,Mississippi.He married Marissa Story born 1805 South Carolina died 1883 Bells Malls,Cleburne Co.Alabama.2 children, Isabelle Land born 1829 or 1830.S.C. died 1880 Cleburne Co.Alabama. John William Land Dec. 27,1832 Carroll Co.Georgia.married 1853 Georgia,died 1918 San Saba Co.Texas Buried Richland Springs,Texas. John married Elizabeth Jane Rutledge,they had 1. Nancy Octavia Land, 2. Theron Andrew Land, 3. William Jasper Land 4. James G.Land, 5. Pairlee Land, 6. Amanda Isabell Land, 7.Henry A.Land 8. Teras Land, 9.John Thomas Land, 10. George Jackson Land. All were born in Georgia or Alabama as far as I know. I understand the Land's came from Ireland, settled in North Carolina, They were granted land in Kentucky,so I am told.
Even if you can't help me in any way,I would appericate you letting me know. I keep hoping there is some one some where,who can tell me who Pascal's parents are.I will be looking forward to hearing from you very soon. And if you know of any one who can help me,please pass this letter on to them.

Yours Truly
Freda Nunnelley

Dear Mary,

Lynn Collis had written earlier about the conversations you had had regarding the earliest-known NUNNALLY in our families. She sent sheets projecting a more plausible sequence, with DANIEL as our progenitor, with sons WALTER and RICHARD. Enclosed is copy of a letter I have written to Lynn, actually intended for both of you.

It is too bad Shortal was not able to incorporate your findings in a revised work. He said he had not looked into Charles City County. Actually, that county is very much today as it was when history was being made. Did I tell you about our visit there? Marshall and I attempted to check every courthouse in Southside Virginia. The road from Richmond to Charles City was a scenic drive; we arrived at a very small crossroad-community, in the center of which was a picturesque original one-room courthouse on a knoll. Adjacent was a newer simple building, with offices. There being no signs, we approached a group of ladies standing between the buildings, and asked where the courthouse was. They indicated the nearby door, so I walked right in . . . and court was in session in the one room . . . and every eye turned to me . . . and every face was black, except the judge . . . mine was red.

In one of the offices, we learned that no old records are kept there; the very few remaining are in the Archives in Richmond. We had already seen what was in Richmond, so were disappointed in that fact; the drive was worth the time, however.

Between you and Lynn, I do believe you will come to some outstanding conclusions. I can hardly wait.

Thank you for your continued interest. Please keep in touch.

The best to you and your family in the New Year.

Sincerely,

Jean

Dear Lynn,

Well yes! I do believe you are on the right track with our earliest-known NUNNALLY. I do appreciate your dedication and work.

It has been with blind faith that most of us have accepted Shortal's beginnings, since he didn't document his wonderful details.

Of course, "EARLY DANIEL" and "EARLY WALTER" were obviously part of RICHARD's family, due to records we have both uncovered; e.g., joint-administration of DANIEL's estate being given to WALTER, RICHARD and John Bowman.

There was date-descrepancy at several points in Shortal which muddied generation sequence. To me, the sheets you sent on DANIEL, RICHARD, WALTER and THOMAS make perfect sense. It is so logical, it makes one wonder why this was not assembled earlier!

DANIEL NUNNALLY (1640-1690)

B1. THOMAS NUNNALLY (1690-1738)
m. Elizabeth _____ (Page 4 connects land with WALTER and DANIEL.)
A2. RICHARD NUNNALLY (1661-1727)
m. Sarah Akin (1662-1738)

Now, when you work out a few more kinks (including grafting your family in there), there may have to be a Significant Supplement to The Book.

The sheet on your THOMAS R (1810-1876) refers repeatedly to records in Virginia joining him with:

CHALKLEYS
ROBERTSONS (Moses m. Jemimah, Leonard's sister.)
BRANCHES
FARMERS
NUNNALLY, LEONARD, LAWSON, JOHN W, et. al.

Note all those same connections in the family of LEONARD, son of WALTER JR (pp. 247 ff). You mentioned before, a SAMSON, who has eluded identification. He had wife Mary; LEONARD was executor of Mary's estate in 1805.

In those Chesterfield County records (after my BERNARD moved to Kentucky and ARTHUR died in Buckingham County), there were BERNARD, ARTHUR, DANIEL, LEONARD, et. al., together with the other surnames listed above. LEONARD, BRANCH and JAMIMA, children of WALTER, under guardianship of our JOHN, grew up in JOHN's home with our BERNARD, ARTHUR and JOSIAH. This could account for repetition of unusual names like BERNARD and ARTHUR. Now, connect SAMSON, as father of those boys, with WALTER (LEONARD)'s family, and your THOMAS R will fall in place. You will have all your questions answered. Isn't that simple? Do it. Send me the chart.

Thank you for the kind words about The Book. It is encouraging, and gives me a lift when I feel overwhelmed with what I would still like to know.

Best wishes to you and your family in the New Year. Keep in touch.

Sincerely,

Dear Jean,

Thanks for the good letter (and copy of letter to Lynn Collis) responding to our suggestion that one Daniel Nunnally is probably the earliest known of that name in Virginia. I just wish we had made our ideas known before your book went to print. I am sure by now that dozens of people have emerged with ideas and additional Nunleys...and more will be heard from, I feel sure! I have hopes that you will, at some time, do a supplement to Our Nunnally/Nunley Family.

In 1976, C. L. Jack Popejoy of Juneau, Alaska published a book on my Popejoy family called, The Popejoy Family in America, 1700-1976 (344 pages - hardbound). Then in 1982, he had received so much correspondence and new material that the book, Popejoy Past and Present, 1680-1980 was published (478 pages, hardbound). In 1988, Jack issued a paperback supplement containing 51 pages...still more...in 1990, Jack issued another paperback supplement containing 84 pages. Jack was born in 1908 and in his last letter to me in July, 1990 (at age 82) he said "It has been a pleasure making all of these recordings and being able to share this family information with each of you in this way. Your cooperation in submitting...is greatly appreciated. This will be my last printed item on the subject due to age and its infirmities". I really doubt that in the year 2013 that I will still be at the library looking for Nunneleys. But, maybe I will since I will be 82 in only 15 years...

I will try to reduce the copy of your letter to Lynn and tip it in front of the Nunnally/Nunley book as an errata sheet of sorts. As a retired employee of the Bartlesville Public Library, I am very familiar with those sheets. We received them often from publishers and I got to do the "tip-ins". Before I use your letter to Lynn, do you plan an errata sheet to be sent to those who purchased the book? Let me know, please.

Enclosing a correction for Pleasant Miller Hornbeak and Elizabeth R. Nunnelly (Our Nunnally/Nunley Family, page 114). You show that Pleasant, Sr. (Elizabeth/E7) and Pleasant, Jr. (F6) both died in the Civil War on 19 March 1863. Pleasant Miller Hornbeack died on 15 Oct 1866. When I send these items asking for a correction, would you like for me to copy the material from each book that I use for proofs? I am sure the books are in Nashville, but I would be happy to make copies from my books.

Another correction is in the works, but I need more proofs for you. This concerns Mary "Polly" Nunneley (F17 - Our Nunnally/Nunley Family, page 103) daughter of Joseph Alexander Nunneley and Nancy Easley.

I do not know who Mary "Polly" Nunneley, born 26 May 1846 did marry, but she did not marry Larkin Bunch. This was proposed by Donna Miller Nunley several years ago and I immediately wrote to let her know it was an error. His name is correctly, James Larkin Bunch. He was born 22 Sep 1847 (the son of Charles and Mary "Polly" Coffman Bunch). Larkin died 12 Aug 1921 and is buried in the Liberty Cemetery in Newton Co. Arkansas. Larkin was the brother of Sarah Elizabeth Susan Bunch who married Alexander McCollough (see G1 - Elbert Alexander Nunneley, page 104). Now to really confuse you...James Larkin Bunch, 1847-1921, is buried as Larkin Bunch (his stone). He really married Mary "Polly" Maxwell Moltham, daughter of Joel and Clarissa Moore Maxwell. The mother of Mary "Polly" Maxwell Moltham Bunch married as her second husband, Joseph Alexander Nunneley. I suppose the fact that Joseph Alexander Nunneley (E4) had a daughter Mary Nunneley (F17) and a step-daughter Mary could have led Donna Miller Nunley to assume that Larkin married Mary (F17). The Arkansas 1911 Census of Confederate Veterans lists James Larkin Bunch. In his certified deposition (9 Mar 1912) James Larkin Bunch stated that he had married Mary Malthan, daughter of Joel and Clearcia Maxwell. I, also, have them on the 1870 and 1880 census. Will send this all when I have finished a bit more research.

Will close for now. I am sending a check for $36.00 for another copy of the book. I will have an extra to write in corrections and still retain one "clean" copy.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary,

Thank you for your encouraging words. We appreciate your sending notice to your family members. Your other three books are in the mail.

Oh, I feel so bad about Lynn Collis. We were in contact with her, and even called her from Chesterfield County on one research trip to Southside Virginia. We understood her to say she descended from a Thomas, but had no idea who he was and where he fit on the tree. She mentioned the Samson who was there, but we were unable to connect him with anyone for sure. Without any more information, we could not find a place to include Lynn's family. I do wish I had contacted her again before the book went to press, to see if she knew any more. I agree that she obviously had done in-depth research, and regret that her family was omitted.

Enclosed is a copy of the portrait of Lawson Harrison Nunnelly I. He was a dignified gentleman, and evidently an astute businessman, originating the community of Nunnelly, Tennessee, about forty miles west of Nashville. It is little more than a crossroad at this time, but in its day, the Nunnelly firm must have controlled the community. Everyone worked for them and purchased from the company store with exchange tokens.

No, we have not contributed a copy of the book to the DAR Library in Washington. Let us know if you want one sent there.

Thank you again.

Sincerely,

Jean

27 dec 1997

Dear Muffie and Jim,

The White House ornament, 1997, is lovely. We so enjoy receiving them each year. Thank you so much.

Our Nunnally/Nunley Family by Jean Nunley Dennison has been interesting reading. I do know that several errors have occured in the writing of the book. This happens...

Jean based much of her early Nunnally information on a manuscript written in 1978 by Joseph Adams Shortal of Hampton, VA. Joe's work contained 37 pages and had many errors, but was widely distributed for several years. I told Jean to be very careful when using his material, because it was not fully documented. I even mentioned to her that I had questioned Joe in correspondence concerning his errors and that he agreed he was wrong in some of his work. In 1983, I sent Joe several corrections (with proof) for some of his published statements. He acknowledged his mistakes and then allowed the Virginia Tidewater Genealogy Society (Hampton, VA) to publish his manuscript in their quarterly, Vol. 15, No. 1, March 1984 with all of the mistakes - not one correction...I gave up. Joe died sometime after 1984.

Shortal's and Jean Dennison's earliest Nunnally is Richard, born ca 1640. They base the existence of this Richard on the Henrico Co. VA court record of 1663. They determined that Richard was an adult of at least 21 years in 1663. The problem...there are no court records for Henrico Co. VA in 1663! Henrico Co. was an original shire formed in 1634. Court record books begin in 1677, so early Richard was definitely not fined in 1663 for non-payment of tithes. The following is the actual court record:

Henrico Co. VA - Record Book 2, 1678-1693 - page 427

Att an Adjourn'd Court held at Varina for Henrico County ye twelveth day of Octob; by their Ma:ties Justices of the peace for ye sd County A.o regni Reg:s et Reginae Gul: et Mar:grto A:o dom: 1692

Hen: Randolph having exhibitted an Informacon to this Court for not Listing himself being a tythable according to law Ag:t Rich:d Nunnally & ye sd Nunally making no valueable defence Judgemt in ther fore granted agt him for One thousd pds tob according to ye 7th Act of Ass:bly A.o 1663 als: Exec. In consideracon of ye sd Nunalys paying proporconably to his Levys & all Officers fees accrueing by ye Informacon Hen: Randolph acquitts & releases him from ye above Judgemt.

NOTE: The 7th Act of Assembly was passed at James City County, Virginia in 1663. The fine of 1000 pounds of tobacco was passed at that assembly.

Both Shortal and Dennison picked up the date of the "7th Act of Assembly in James City County in 1663" and not the actual court date of 12 Oct 1692 in Henrico Co. VA. SO, this then does away with Richard born 1640 as the earliest Nunnally.

Who is the earliest Nunnally? Probably a Daniel Nunnally who was in Charles City Co., VA court records as early as 1665/6. Jean Dennison lists this Daniel as a contemporary to the early Richard (see her page two). Since there is no "early Richard", this then would surely seem to make our line in America begin with Daniel, born ca 1640s and died ca 1689.

A friend, Lynn Collis (from VA to Bartlesville to CT to Bartlesville) and I have worked on the early VA Nunnallys since 1986. We read VA county records on microfilm from the Virginia State Archives and Lynn computerized the material. When they moved to CT several years ago, we discontinued our research, but we shared everything with Jean Dennison for her book. Lynn called the minute she received her book from Jean and, said "Oh Mary, Shortal's mistakes are in Jean's book". And so it goes...

There are several other minor mistakes, only due to lack of good research work or no research when there were available records. This does occur in most published genealogies.

Jean Dennison assigns our Anderson Nunnelly who married Martha Baldwin to Peter Nunnally who married Sarah Hewitt. Could be, but I cannot prove it, nor has anyone. Or, is Anderson the son of Joseph and Francis Nunnally of Amelia Co. VA? Can't prove that either!

Jim, you mentioned several ancestors buried in Bristol County, Tennessee. I don't find a Bristol Co., but did locate a Bristol, TN/VA. Bristol appears to be, part in TN and part in VA on the state line. In Tennessee, it is located in Sullivan Co. and the Virginia part of Bristol appears to be in Washington Co. VA (though I believe the VA part is called an~~d~~ Independent City). Who are the ancestors buried in Bristol? Are they Muffie's Kilpatrick's or Milliken's?

Again, thanks much for the ornament.

Dear Jean,

Thank you for the wonderful picture of Lawson Harrison Nunnelly, I. It is a delight to have and share with our family since Lawson, II is my husband's great-grandfather.

I have talked to Lynn Collis twice recently concerning the Shortal manuscript and his assignment of Richard, b 1640, to the "head" of the family. I corresponded over several years with Joe and tried to get him to correct his material, by sending him proofs. He always thanked me and agreed that his Nunnally genealogy had errors. One day I was at the Bartlesville Public Library and noticed that the new issue of the Virginia Tidewater Genealogy quarterly had arrived. It was Vol. 15, No. 1, March 1984. To my shock, Joe had given the Nunnally genealogy to them to be published in the original form. He had made no corrections. I know that several people had sent material to him to make corrections. The last letter I received from Joe was written 8 Feb 1984. He discussed several of the corrections I had sent and stated:

> Regarding your data from Charles City Co. I neglected to look into this county. Prior to 1703 all records from Prince George Co. would have been in Charles City...I will have to look into this some more.

Joe was already 72 years at that writing and may have been in poor health. I have heard he did not live much longer and have been told that he and his wife moved to Ohio to live with a daughter. Have no proof of this and have not been able to find out just when he did die. In your book, page 209, you have that he died ca 1980. It was after 8 Feb 1984, but have no idea the exact date.

Now, the big question??? Why, after checking so much of Joseph Adams Shortal's work and sending him corrections, did I not question his Richard, b 1640? I really spent much of my time looking at Amelia Co. and trying to prove the parents of Anderson and Martha Baldwin Nunneley. So, I did not bother to look for the Henrico Co. court case of 1663 that fined Richard Nunally 1000 lbs of tobacco. If I had looked it would not have been available. Now it appears that our earliest Nunnally must be Daniel in Charles City Co. VA in 1665/6 (Welthan Taylor vs Daniel).

We need to continue to research this family and will look forward to volume two!

Will close for now and sending updates on one line that I had thought previously sent.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Jean,

I received your letter of apology last week; please don't feel bad. I still do not know the parents of my Thomas R. Nunnally. It might have been helpful to be included as a loose end in Chesterfield Co since there is always the chance that someone out there has a family Bible and might recognize the names. Just in case I didn't send you the information that I do know, I am inclosing person/group sheets for Thomas R. Nunnally down to my own family. I have other information on siblings. If you would like more detail, let me know. I will try to get it organized and to you after the holidays if you would like to have it.

I am also enclosing sheets on those Nunnallys who lived on the same road as my Thomas. I feel that there is a relationship, but just what that relationship might be is the question. One of these days I am going to find a document that will answer these questions.

I was so excited to receive your book. You did a wonderful job. It is one of the best written genealogy books that I have read. I know that your family must be very pleased.

As I was reading about the earliest Nunnallys, something struck me that I have overlooked in all the years that I have been working on the Nunnally line. Maybe it was actually seeing it in print that made it jump out at me. It concerns Shortal's earliest Richard. Shortal bases the existence of this Richard on his statement that Richard was fined for not listing himself as a tithable in 1663, thus making him born by ca1641. We all took this to be a fact. None of us questioned how Shortal found this record, when Henrico Co has no record books prior to 1677. There may be a few loose wills and deeds surviving, but the court record books begin with 1677.

I subscribe to the Magazine of Virginia Genealogy and I remembered that they had been transcribing Henrico County Record Book No. 2, 1678-1693, for the past few years. I determined to try to find where Shortal got his record. I looked in the indexes for Richard Nunnally and I found the reference to his fine for failure to list himself as tithable. I have made a copy of the pages and I am including them. As you can see, the actual date of the fine was Oct 1692.From reading the record, you can readily understand how Joe Shortal made his mistake. The date 1663 is in the record, but it refers to an assembly, held in James City, where a fine was set at 1000 lbs tob for failure to list a tithe . This means that we no longer have proof that a Richard Nunnally was in VA by 1663 and thus was born by about 1640. The 1692 date means that this is more likely a reference to the Richard Nunnally (ca 1661-1727).

Shortal never mentioned Daniel Nunnally or his son Walter at all. Perhaps he didn't have access to the early Charles City records. I think that now we may have to look at Daniel in a different light. He definitely was in VA by 1665/6, thus he is the oldest known Nunnally. Since Richard Nunnally and Walter Nunnally (who we already know is a son of Daniel) along with John Bowman, who married Elizabeth the wid of Daniel, were given joint adm of Daniel's est, maybe we should consider the possibility that Richard Nunnally (1661-1727) was in fact a second son of Daniel. Richard did name a son Daniel, and the name Daniel occurs in just about every generation thereafter.

This brings us to Thomas Nunnally and descendants who were in Prince George and Dinwiddie Counties. Shortal has an early Thomas Nunnally as the son of his first Richard. I personally have found no proof yet that this Thomas exists. From the land records of Pr Geo Co, it is more likely that Thomas Nunnally b. ca 1695 was the son of Walter Nunnally, the first son of Daniel Nunnally. He inherited the 90a called "Bullhill" which he sells in 1724 to John Thweat. He also has one half of the 418a bought by Walter Nunnally and Nathaniel Tatum.

I am enclosing sheets on Daniel, Richard, Walter and Thomas Nunnally and would like your opinion. I have spoken to Mary Nunneley and neither of us can believe that we overlooked this for so long. Again, let me know what you think.

Wishing you and your family a very Merry Christmas and Happy New Year-

Then I attended both the Washington County and Osage County Cowbelles luncheon meetings and we are planning many beef promotions including beef recipe cook-offs, beef certificate for Father's Day gifts, etc. Mrs. Leola Smith is the Washington County President and Mrs. Josephone Ballew is the Osage County President. So eat a lot of good lean, high protein beef, it helps the American economy, especially the farmer.

The most exciting happening to us this month was when Joe received his 50-year pin as a 32° Mason at the Tulsa Scottish Rite Temple during their spring reunion. He managed to tear himself away from cleaning out the barn and sheds and spreading the fertilizer on our garden and flower beds, and put down his shovel for this occasion. We were glad his nieces, Mrs. Alice Esch, Mrs. Virginia Chapman, her husband Charles, as well as my brother and sister-in-law, Bruce and Donna Townsend, and Uncle Alfred Miller could all be there to see him receive his pin and certificate award. He has now been called to jury duty in Osage County, so I am sure justice will be handed down in court over at Pawhuska this session.

We will hope to see you at the March 21 meeting to hear Mrs. Gorman tell her fascinating stories with that special wit that is hers. It is also our annual meeting where we will elect our directors for expired terms, so please be present; bring other guests and prospective members and make this our biggest year ever!

CONGRATULATIONS!!! By using the CENDEX service you have saved weeks, months or perhaps years in your search for your ancestors. Your listing shows every instance of your requested surname as it appears on the census in question. The listing is on a phonetic basis, not alphabetic. Because of the mechanics of the Soundex code, the listing may contain names you obviously did not order. Nevertheless, you should examine every name carefully to make sure that it is not in a form previously unknown to you.

This is what your listing means to you:

*NOTE: The original 1820 census schedules of the counties in the eastern third of Tennessee have been lost for many years. Other things being equal, the 1830 and 1840 Tennessee listings (which are complete) are much better buys.

NOTE: Many names require that two or more Soundex codes be checked in order to have a complete search made. This is true of names which may or may not have a particular consonant (i.e., Rich/Ritch, Tomson/Thompson, Hamilton/Hambleton, etc.). Please show variant spellings of the name you have ordered so that no code is overlooked in filling your order.

This is part of an integrated index for the population schedules of the entire 1850 census of Tennessee. It is arranged by head of household, but the names of all individuals are included within their respective families. At the end of each family listing the place of birth of the first two family members is indicated, followed by a symbol representing the county of residence, the household number, and the microfilm page number. Except for the use of the letter "T" to denote Tennessee, common abbreviations are employed.

A key to the county symbols appears on the back of this sheet.

We recognize the index contains errors, some of them the result of misreading the ancient script, some the more human faults--typographical errors, mistakes in arrangement, etc. If you find an error or something you don't understand, please write us. We'll be glad to answer your questions and particularly happy to make corrections (which will appear in an "errata" section in Vol. 8 of the printed index) to cause this work to be more useful to others.

persons under 14 years, 14 and under 26, 26 and under 45, and 45 and upward; all other free persons, except Indians not taxed; number of persons (including slaves) engaged in agriculture, commerce, and manufactures.

"Although more than one set of numbers often appears on the schedules, the system of numbering, whether stamped or written . . . is generally that which (1) runs consecutively from the beginning to the end of the volume, and (2) appears to be consistent with the numbering for other volumes for the state.

Where a schedule begins on a page not numbered, an "A" number (36A, for example) has been used for identification. . . ."*

This numbering system has been used throughout this index. All unnumbered pages are given an "A" number or, in one or two cases where two consecutive unnumbered pages occur, a "B" number. This means that a name may appear, for example, on page 36A while part of the information concerning this person appears on page 37.

Please remember to check the Errata page at the end of the book in case the name for which you are searching was omitted or misfiled in the main body of the index.

Dear Mrs. Koole:

Re: Nunley/Nunry/alt sp. in Rowan County.

The earliest Tax List for Rowan is that of 1759: no Nunley/alt. Sp.

There are some fragmentary Rowan Tax Lists for the 1760s: no Nunley/alt. sp.

The next exant Tax List for Rowan is that of 1778: no Nunley/alt. sp.

There is one reference to this name in the Rowan County wills for the period 1753-1850. Will Book G:98. John Bennett in his will dated 23 April 1807 names his wife, Mary Alice Nunnery, son Richard, daughters Nancy Weeks, Susannah Sandes, and Prudence. Also mentioned are Stephen Weirvill and John Lindsay. Exrs: Walton Bechands, Jacob Motzinger. No witnesses & will not signed. No other Nunley/alt sp. as testator, legatee, executor, witness, or otherwise mentioned.

Rowan County Deeds 1753-1772: no Nunley/alt. sp.

Rowan County Minutes of the Court of Pleas & Quarter Sessions 1753-1774: no Nunley/alt. sp.

1790 NC census: no one of this surname in Rowan area.

✓ 1800 NC census: Amos Nunnerly, Cumberland County, p.367
Thomas Nunnerly, Rutherford County, p.134
Arch. Nunnerly, Rutherford, p. 133
John Nunnerly, Rutherfor, p.134
Anderson Nunley, Lincoln Co., p. 849

3x5

✓ 1810 NC census: Alexander Nunely, Cumberland County, p.248
Amos Nunery, Cumberland, p.265
Henry Nunery, Cumberland, p.265
William Nunery, Cumberland, p.265
P. Nunley, Montgomery, p.43
Levi Nunaly, Burke Co., p.126

1820 NC census: no Nunley/alt.sp.

What you need to do is go back to your earliest proved ancestor, find when he first began buying property in that area, who the neighboring landowners were, who the other people of that surname were in the area that he came there and work from those facts backward. I cannot do anything with the Cherokee census without know the name of the Indian wife. Sometimes family tradition is altered over 200 years. The Yadkin River rises in southern Watauga County near Blowing Rock and flows southeast into Caldwell County where it turns northeast to flow through Wilkes County, through Surry, Forsyth, Davie, Davidson, Rowan, Montgomery, and Stanley counties. It is joined by the Uwharrie River to form the Pee Dee river. The Pee Dee flows south through Anson County into S.C. where it empties into Winyah Bay.

I hope this will help you some, even if only in a negative way. I will put your letter in my file in the event I have another inquiry on this line or find more information.

Sincerely,

Jo White Linn

(Mrs. Stahle Linn, Jr.) C.G.

This is part of an integrated index for the population schedules of the entire 1850 census of Tennessee. It is arranged by head of household, but the names of all individuals are included within their respective families. At the end of each family listing the place of birth of the first two family members is indicated, followed by a symbol representing the county of residence, the household number, and the microfilm page number. Except for the use of the letter "T" to denote Tennessee, common abbreviations are employed.

A key to the county symbols appears on the back of this sheet.

We recognize the index contains errors, some of them the result of misreading the ancient script, some the more human faults--typographical errors, mistakes in arrangement, etc. If you find an error or something you don't understand, please write us. We'll be glad to answer your questions and particularly happy to make corrections (which will appear in an "errata" section in Vol. 8 of the printed index) to cause this work to be more useful to others.

Byron and Barbara Sistler

You will notice that the majority of Nunleys in Tenn. in 1850 were in Warren & Grundy Counties. Warren was the original county and Grundy was carved out of it in 1844, so they are all the same Nunley clan. All of them can be traced back to the 5 Nunerlys who came from N.C. between around 1802-09.

CHART SHOWING ORIGIN OF TENNESSEE COUNTIES UP TO 1796

INTRODUCTION

Research in Tennessee for the period prior to 1830 poses some difficult problems because no complete census schedules for the state exist before that date. The 1800 census schedules were entirely lost or destroyed, and for 1810 only Rutherford Co. has been saved. The 1820 lists for almost all the eastern counties are missing.

For genealogists seeking county of origin of early settlers the only feasible approach is through the county tax lists, petitions and newspaper accounts. To facilitate this search and simplify the pin-pointing of county of residence we have prepared this index to those early lists. With this "bare bones" information we hope we can send many frustrated ancestor hunters winging on their ways toward the flesh and blood material of which good family histories are made.

This is a single index to 68 county tax lists, petitions, voter lists, and newspaper lists of inhabitants in 34 Tennessee counties. There are about 46,000 entries in all. We believe we have taken all known tax lists into consideration (though not all have been included in the index, since those for years after census schedules are available were not deemed useful and in most cases the transcribing of lists less than 5 years apart would not add significant value to the work).

The earliest list included is from 1787 and the latest 1827. About 2/3 of the state's counties in existence by 1820 are included in one or more lists.

While some tax lists included additional information, such as acreage, number of "polls" etc., there is no data of genealogical value in them other than the name of household head and the county. Since the primary purpose of this book is a directional aid we have omitted this extraneous information.

The index itself is simple enough to follow. You will find the name of the subject followed by a county symbol (see inside front cover) and a date, which represents the year of that particular list.

All of the tax lists are on file at the Tennessee State Library and Archives in Nashville, TN.

Lists represented by this index are as follows:

children and twelve grandchildren. He was laid to rest in Neal Cemetery, Earlsboro. By his death his family lost a loving and devoted husband, father and grandfather, his unusually large number of friends a genial and loyal companion, and his community one of its most upright and useful citizens. He was not only highly respected, but also greatly beloved for his many fine qualities, and his memory will be kept alive for many years to come in the hearts and minds of all who knew him.

JOHN WILLIAM SPURR—A member of an old and prominent Kentucky family and himself a native of that State, Mr. Spurr has been a resident of Oklahoma for more than a quarter of a century. Until 1919, since which he has been retired from active work and has made his home at Seminole, he was successfully engaged in operating a large farm at Stroud, Lincoln County, where he was a pioneer planter of cotton in that part of Oklahoma. Like his ancestors, Mr. Spurr is a cultured gentleman and has always taken a very active and helpful part in the civic, fraternal, religious and social life of the community. His many fine qualities have won for him a high social position, and he has been considered for many years one of the leading citizens of that part of Oklahoma, which he has helped to develop.

On his paternal grandmother's side Mr. Spurr is a descendant of a German lady of high birth, supposed to have been a princess, who between 1730 and 1740 fell in love with a youth, not her equal in position and fortune, named Michael Ramer. As the result of her parents' opposition to their marriage, the two young lovers eloped to America, married and settled in the State of Maryland. To this union there were born four daughters, one of whom Elizabeth Ramer, born July 25, 1747, married, June 18, 1765, James Beatty, who was born October 16, 1742. The youngest of the eleven children of James and Elizabeth (Ramer) Beatty, Barbara Beatty, born August 20, 1786, married, April 1, 1807, Daniel Spurr, these being the paternal grandparents of John William Spurr. The youngest of their eight children, Beatty Ramer Spurr, was the father of John William Spurr. He was born August 16, 1825, and became a physician in Fayette County, Kentucky. Dr. Spurr was an old-time country physician and for many years rode on horseback over a radius of some thirty miles to attend to his practice and patients. He was a gentleman of the old school and was very fond of fine saddle horses, usually owning a number of thoroughbreds. Though offering his services as a military surgeon during the Civil War, he was not accepted, the authorities considering his professional services as a civilian physician indispensable to the several communities, which he served so faithfully for many years. Dr. Spurr married, February 28, 1861, Mary Ann Delph, a daughter of John M. Delph, mayor of Louisville, Kentucky. To this union there were born three children, only one of whom lived to maturity, John William Spurr.

John William Spurr was born five miles north of Lexington, Kentucky, January 10, 1862, a son of Dr. Beatty Ramer and Mary Ann (Delph) Spurr. He was educated in the public grammar and high schools of his native region and continued to live in Fayette County, Kentucky, until June, 1901, when he removed to Oklahoma. There he settled at Stroud, Lincoln County, purchasing one hundred and sixty acres of land, one half mile east of that town. He immediately proceeded to cultivate this property, having decided to raise wheat. The first year he planted ninety acres, the second year fifty, and the third year fifteen. However, he soon discovered that neither the soil nor the climate was particularly adapted for the cultivation of wheat and with characteristic enterprise he made a very thorough study of cotton growing. Before long he decided, as the result of these studies, to devote himself to the growing of cotton and worked out methods which he considered especially well adapted to his soil and to the climatic conditions of his neighborhood. Though many people predicted failure, he quickly proved his methods to be the best for his needs and purposes, and thereafter he met with great success during the eighteen years he continued to cultivate his Stroud farm. Just after the World War, Oklahoma farms brought remarkable prices, and Mr. Spurr eventually sold his farm, in March, 1919, and removed to Seminole, where he has since then made his home. Though practically retired, he occasionally engages in contracting work and in the construction of buildings, and has handled several profitable enterprises of this nature. In politics Mr. Spurr is a supporter of the Democratic party, and during his residence in Stroud he served as inspector on the local election board. Though a man of public spirit and urged several times to run for the office of county commissioner, he has never aspired to public office and has always declined to become a candidate. For twenty-four years he has been a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and during this period he has been prominently active in the affairs of this organization, having held several high offices, including that of Noble Grand. His religious affiliations are with the Baptist church.

Mr. Spurr married, at Covington, Kentucky, April 18, 1883, Mary F. Nunnelley of Greendale, Kentucky, a daughter of Dudley Vardivan and Jurette (Hudson) Nunnelley. Mrs. Spurr's father was born in Pulaski County, Kentucky, and was married twice, his second wife, Mrs. Spurr's mother, being a daughter of Colonel Hudson, who served on the staff of the governor of Kentucky during the Civil War. Prior to that time he had moved to Fayette County, Kentucky, and had purchased a large farm, located between Lexington and Georgetown. His father had come to this country from England, where his ancestors had been ministers for many generations. Dudley V. Nunnelley was prominent throughout his life in the Baptist church and was highly respected for his deep and sincere interest in religion. At an early age he had become converted to the Baptist faith and he was present when Alexander Campbell, the famous Baptist reformer, organized the Cane Run Baptist Church near Lexington, Kentucky, from which later developed the Baptist sect known as Campbellites or Disciples of Christ. Prior to the Civil War, Mr. Nunnelley owned many slaves and, in common with other Southern planters, the end of the war brought him heavy losses. After the war he devoted himself to his various enterprises, to his family and to his church. Mr. and Mrs. Spurr were the parents of seven children, all born in Kentucky: 1. William Harold Spurr, who was born, March 29, 1884, and who died at Seminole, July 24, 1919, was one of the pioneer businessmen of Seminole, where he enjoyed a very high position; with Mr. Douglas of Shawnee, he organized the first bank at Tidmore, now part of Seminole; he also was interested in the drug business, dealt in oil leases and royalties, owned some very valuable oil land; he married Maud Stroud of Stroud, Lincoln County, and at the time of his death was survived by his wife and three children: Harold Baxter, James Wrexel and Dorothy. 2. Richard Delph, married Mary Talley of Lees Summit, Missouri. 3. Beatty Ramer, married Ethel Goff of Stroud, Oklahoma, and is the father of one son, Beatty Ramer, Jr., 4. Dudley Lewis, who served in the Ninetieth Division during the World War; married and he and his wife, Pearl, have two daughters. 5. JOHN TILLMAN HEFLEY—Having been active for many years in the educational life of Oklahoma, John Tillman Hefley is now filling in an efficient and creditable manner the office of superintendent of the city schools of Ponca City, a position which he assumed in 1926. With the exception of a very few years of his mature life, he has been engaged in the profession of teaching and in the supervision of schools.

He was born in Belmont, Kansas, on April 13, 1874, the son of Jefferson L. Hefley, who was a farmer by occupation and who participated actively in the Civil War, having been with the First Illinois Cavalry from 1861 to 1863, and of Margaret C. Hefley. After he had received his preliminary education, John Tillman Hefley became a student at Oklahoma University, from which institution he was graduated in the class of 1901 with the degree of Bachelor of Arts; later he attended the University of Chicago, from which he was graduated in 1925 with the degree of Master of Arts. He is a life-member of the Oklahoma Education Association, of the National Education Association and of the Department of Superintendence of the National Education Association. When he finished his work at Oklahoma University, he became principal of the Globe (Arizona) High School, a position which he held in 1901-1902; then Superintendent of Schools in Globe, in 1902-1903. From 1903 to 1905 he was agent for the Mid-West Land Company, of Lincoln, Nebraska, but in 1905 he resumed his educational work. He was principal of the elementary schools in Muskogee from 1905 until 1909; principal of the high school in Muskogee in 1909-1910; again principal of the elementary schools from 1910 to 1913; superintendent of the city schools of Henryetta from 1913 to 1926; then, in 1926, he became superintendent of the city schools of Ponca City, a position which he holds at the present time. Active in the civic and social life of Ponca City, he is a member of the Free and Accepted Masons, in which Order he has taken the thirty-second degree of the Scottish Rite; of the Rotary Club; and of the Chamber of Commerce. He is identified religiously with the Methodist Episcopal church.

On November 26, 1903, Mr. Hefley married Minnie Rose Gould, daughter of the late Simon Gilbert and Anna (Robinson) Gould, both natives of Ohio. John Tillman and Minnie Rose (Gould) Hefley are the parents of the following children: 1. Maxine Glozona, born on December 28, 1904. 2. Dana Gould, born on January 25, 1906. 3. John Theodore, born on January 26, 1918.

JUDGE WILLIAM ARTHUR TIDWELL—The career of Judge William Arthur Tidwell, of Idabel, McCurtain County, Oklahoma, has not been long in point of years, but has been filled with rich experience and honorable distinction beyond those falling to the lot of an average individual in a lifetime.

Born June 29, 1896, in Franklin County, Alabama, Judge Tidwell is a son of James J. and Mary Josephine (West) Tidwell. James J. Tidwell was born in 1870, in Marion County, Alabama, and has given his career to agriculture, at which he is now (1928) profitably engaged, in Oklahoma. The family of Tidwell is old in the history of North Carolina, and has given many gifted and celebrated men to the professions, to business, and other fields of endeavor. Mary Josephine (West) Tidwell was also born in Alabama, in Winston County, in 1875. Her ancestors were the original settlers on and owners of the townsite of Aberdeen, Mississippi.

In 1900, when Judge Tidwell was nine years of age, his parents came from the Alabama farm to Arkansas, and to the Indian Territory in 1905, and here he attended the schools which were most accessible to him. In McCurtain County, he went to work for the Choctaw Lumber Company, at Broken Bow, and to it gave the whole of his young enthusiasm, though even at that time he showed inclinations toward the law as a career and life's profession. Then war was declared against Germany by the United States, and our country joined the Allies in the world conflict. Judge Tidwell went overseas with the First Provisional Company, Coast Artillery Corps, and was injured so seriously on the outward voyage across the Atlantic that even after his discharge, in 1919, he was forced to remain in various hospitals, until 1924. Meanwhile, with the enforced program of hospital routine, he was afforded time and the means, through rehabilitation by the Veterans' Bureau, to undertake the study of law, privately. This was continued after discharge from hospital, at Atoka and Idabel, Oklahoma, in 1925, and in June of that year he was admitted to practice before the bar. He opened offices in Idabel without further postponement of the career chosen, and during the few years that have followed has proved this choice to have been wise indeed. A Democrat, since maturity loyal in support of the party's principles, the very year after his entrance to the bar of Oklahoma he became his party's candidate for the office of County Judge, election of 1926. He not only led his ticket but secured a greater majority of votes than had been accorded to any candidate in years. As judge of the courts of McCurtain County, his record more than justifies the overwhelming choice of the people.

While his duties of the bench, and of the private practice which he has retained, prevent the participation of which Judge Tidwell is desirous in public matters, still, he has never failed to act the part of good citizen, nor to endorse all movements designed for the welfare of community, county and nation. Fraternally, he is affiliated with the Free and Accepted Masons and the Independent Order of Odd Fellows; he is a member of the American Legion, Disabled Veterans of the World War, and Veterans of Foreign Wars. As member of the Idabel Lions Club he is a vigorous and progressive worker in all undertakings pertaining to the wealth and happiness of the community, and in all social con-

7. NUNNALLY—Pardon me for the following inquiries. I have for a number of years longed to know something authentic as to my grandfather, John Nunnally. It is an established fact that he was a Revolutionary soldier. Now, it would be gratifying if you can ascertain when and where he was mustered in service, under what general and what division of the army and how long he served as a soldier, and when and where mustered out. All I know authentic is that my grandfather, John Nunnally, was of English descent and served in the Revolutionary War. My grandmother applied for pension in 1840, or maybe as late as 1845, and received several thousand dollars before she died. Her death occurred in 1849, my grandfather having died in 1825. John Nunnally was born, so the records say, in 1758. Now, whether he was born in England or America, I know not. When a child I was told my grandfather, with two brothers, came over from England, sacrificing their all, and joined the army; that my grandfather served his time and then as substitute for others the whole seven years. His consideration as substitute was large tobacco notes made payable when peace was declared. The notes were paid, and my grandfather married Susan Burton, of Virginia, and somewhere about 1820 moved with his family to Clarke county, Georgia, near Watkinsville, where he spent the remainder of his days. Now, if you can from the little information I am able to give, trace up who my grandfather was, it will afford me much pleasure and gratification. I am told he was always called Major Nunnally, but whether he ranked as major or not in the army I do not know. My father, William Branch Nunnally, served in the war of 1812, but unfortunately I am not informed as to what division or what company or captain he was with. He often told incidents that happened when he was stationed on the James or Potomac rivers in Virginia. He was orderly sergeant. It is strange in childhood we listen to amusing incidents from our parents with no thought of their passing away and leaving us with so little of their real history. Then in mature years when all have passed over the river we long to know more and more, but all is blank then. Soon many noble names are lost to history and forgotten to the busy world.

Hoping through the historic research you are making some real authentic information may be gained as to my parentage, the time may come when it may prove a blessing to be able to say I am a descendant of one who fought for the independence of these United States. I cherish the free independent blood that ran through my grandfather's veins and feel it a duty to get as far as possible every data that we may be able to trace our lineage back and know that the constitution framed by our forefathers was gained by the helping hand of John Nunnally, my grandfather. And my own father, William Branch Nunnally, served his time in the war of 1812, and my brothers fought, bled and died for State rights.

8. Lockard—I should like to know the ancestors of John Lockard (or Lockert, as it was sometimes spelled), who was born about 1770 in Chester District, South Carolina, near Lockard Shoals on Broad river, and married Elizabeth Going in 1798. They had three children—Aaron, Narcissa and Betsy. Narcissa married John Bell, of South Carolina, who after their marriage moved to Georgia. Betsy married Mr. McChimey, of Pickens county, Alabama.

I will greatly appreciate any information that can be given.

9. Wood-Nichols—Can you give any information concerning the Wood family, of Spartanburg county, South Carolina? William Wood, I think, owned the Fullwood Iron Furnace in the above county, and was murdered for giving aid to the American prisoners during the Revolutionary War.

His son, whose given name I cannot recall, was sheriff of Spartanburg county during the Revolutionary War, and William Wood's daughter, Sarah Wood, married Christopher Nichols, who fought in the battle of Cowpens. Also, information concerning Christopher Nichols' Revolutionary record and who his descendents were.

QUERIES.

136. McINTOSH OF HOLME—Wanted: Address of any descendants of this family in Georgia. This family must not be confounded with McIntosh of Borlum. Send any information to this chapter.

137. NUNNALLY—I see in your columns one William Nunnally was a pensioner of the Revolution in 1840; aged 84. John Nunnally, of whom inquiry was made in your columns, at that date would have been 82 years of age. I have always heard John Nunnally came from Powhatan county, Va., having served as sheriff of that county. Suppose Wm. and John Nunnally were brothers. Would like to know; also my previous questions I hope may be answered, which were: When was John Nunnally mustered into service? What division was he with? and when and where mustered out?

138. OGLETHORPE—Is there a list of colonists who came over with Oglethorpe? If so, please give it.

139. McCORD—My great grandmother, Mary McCord, was captured by the Indians just about the beginning, or, maybe, during the Revolutionary war, and carried a three-weeks journey to the northwest of her home, which was on or near the south side of the Savannah river. Is there a history of such raid and capture and where can I get it?

140. HILL—I would appreciate any information of the ton, signer of the Declaration of Independence. Nathaniel Walton was a posthumous child, and his name, therefore, does not appear in his father's will.

B. P.

205. NICHOLS—In the Constitution of the 29th of September there is a history of the Nichols family, spoken of as descendants of the Mayflower compact. I would like to know if my ancestor, Flayl Nichols, who was a Revolutionary soldier, was descended from this family. My great-grandfather, Flayl Nichols, was born in Virginia on Sweet Water, went to Seveirville, Tenn., soon after the Revolution, had eight children, that I know of (my grandmother, who was Martha Nichols) and Sarah, John, Robert, William, Edward, Jesse, Simeon. Three of these brothers went to Missouri early in life. Flayl Nichols married Nancy Hatcher, who was a cousin of Henry Clay. I think they lived in Wytheville, Virginia. Flayl Nichols is buried in Tennessee, his grave is marked "A Revolutionary Soldier." Will some one help me to trace the family back to the signers of the "Mayflower Compact?"

MRS. J. M. T.

206. HUMPHRIES—Can you give me any information as to the descendants of the earl of Lochiel, of Inverness county, Scotland? Was Richard Humphries, of Delaware, I think, who came over during the Revolutionary war and married a Miss Esther Alrich, a son of the earl of Lochiel? We have the family record that shows that Richard Humphries died December 6, 1801, at the age of 51 years and 9 months, which shows that he was born early in 1750. The Scottish Chiefs say that the earl of Lochiel was an Humphries, and we have been told by some of our ancestors that we were descended from the earl. We want historical facts if we can get them. Can you furnish me with the extract from Georgia Gazette previous to September 15, 1901? If so, and any charge, please let me know the price.

ANSWERS.

132. NUNNALLY—Replying to queries 7 and 137, I will say that "John Nunelay" (Nunnally), served as sergeant in Armand's corps of Virginia troops. This can be found in Saffael's Records of the Revolution, page 115, his name is marked with a star, indicating that he was entitled to land for his services. The date of services, etc., can doubtless be obtained from the record and pension office, Washington, D. C. Information is furnished there free of charge.

133. BOISSEAU—(See query No. 181). William Boisseau married Keziah Goodwyn (d. of Esau and S. (Sturdivant) Goodwyn). She was born about 1765.

Andrew J. Boisseau married Susanna A. Goodwyn (a daughter of James and Mary A. (Tolly) Goodwyn). She was born in 1825.

Major Robert Goodwyn Boisseau married Martha Epps Harderway. Their son, Richard Edwards Boisseau, born 1842, married Rosa Goodwyn Burnett (daughter of Wm. Warner and Ann Frances (Goodwyn) Burnett). She was born 1847.

His residence was known as "Ripping Hall," which remained in possession of his descendants until its destruction by fire in 1893. They had 9 children;

1. Samuel Ragland, (2).

Strawberry Township, was born in Henry County, Tenn., in 1834. He is a son of Jephtha A. and Elizabeth J. (Harvey) Kendall, of Tennessee, whose parents settled in Tennessee in the year 1800. Mr. Kendall's grandfather fought in the War of 1812, and was also a soldier in the old Revolutionary War. He lived to a very advanced age, as did also his wife, Rachel, who was one hundred and twelve years old at the time of her death. They were the parents of a very large family, the father of J. W. Kendall being their youngest child, who was born in Tennessee, in 1806, where he grew to maturity and married. His wife, the mother of J. W. Kendall, was born in Tennessee, in the year 1812, and both parents were of English descent. They remained in Tennessee until the death of the father, in 1838, when the mother came west and located in Independence County, Ark., where they lived until 1865, when they removed to a point in Jackson County, near Jacksonport. In 1869 they came to this county, where Mr. J. W. Kendall has since lived. He enlisted in Capt. Gibb's company, First Arkansas Regiment, and served four years. During that time he fought at Wilson's Creek, and Elkhorn, Mo., also at the battle of Corinth, Miss. He took part in several small engagements, but the next battles of note in which he was present were at Murfreesboro (Tenn.) and Chickamauga (Ga.), and was with Sherman on his famous march to the sea. Some of his hottest fighting was at Franklin, Tenn., and at Nashville, where he was disabled by a ball through the left hip, and was also shot through the bowels and kidneys. He was taken to the hospital at Franklin, where he was captured, and taken to Nashville. He was held in the hospital for thirty days, and taken to Columbus, Ohio, where he was kept a prisoner until his exchange, just before the war was ended. He then went to Rock Hill, N. C., where he was taken care of by a citizen of the town until the surrender, when he returned home and resumed his farm work. Mr. Kendall must certainly have received as many wounds as any survivor of the war. For two years afterward he could pick small pieces of bone out of his body, especially in his back, where he was struck by a bursting shell at Murfreesboro; and at Dock Hill, Mo., his legs were riddled with small shot. His war record is an honorable one, and the country he served certainly had no braver man. One of the saddest episodes of his career was during the battle at Franklin, Tenn. He saw his brother John shot down before his eyes, but was unable to reach him until the smoke and thunder of that terrible slaughter had cleared away, and left the battlefield to the dead. He returned at the earliest opportunity, and found him lying among the slain, and, far away from home and kindred, he buried him in a secluded spot near where he fell, with the vast field of battle as a monument to his bravery. At the close of the war Mr. Kendall was left without a cent in the world, but by exerting himself he received $30 from the A. F. & A. M., with which to make a new start in life. He now owns 446 acres of land, and has 150 under cultivation, with a substantial building upon it. He was first married, in 1866, to Miss Mary G. Box, of Tennessee, who died in 1880, leaving two children: Felix Susan and George A., the latter dying in December, 1888. His second wife was Miss Harriet I. Reed, of Arkansas, who has borne him two children: John W. and William S. Mr. and Mrs. Kendall are members of the Missionary Baptist Church; the former also of the A. F. & A. M., in which he is Past Master. He takes an active interest in politics, and is a Democrat, having held the office of justice of the peace.

Daniel Ketner, farmer and stock-raiser, is a son of David Ketner, of North Carolina, whose father was one of the soldiers of the Revolution. David Ketner married Miss Mary Izehom, their son, Daniel, being born November 25, 1825. The latter remained with his father until he reached the age of twenty-four years, and in the spring of 1849 moved west, and settled in the State of Illinois. He labored on a farm in Union County for eighteen months, and then, thinking the prospects brighter for him in Tennessee, he moved to that State, where he was shortly afterward married to Miss Catherine Bour, of North Carolina. After his marriage, he settled on a farm in Weakley County, Tenn., where he remained three years, and at the expiration of that time, moved to Union County, Ill., residing there until the fall of 1858. He then came to Arkansas and bought eighty acres of new land, which he cleared and put under cultivation, and, meeting with success in his new home, he bought more land on different occasions, until, at the present time, he owns considerable. His home place consists of 160 acres, with about eighty acres cleared and a comfortable house upon it; an adjoining farm of eighty acres, with fifty-five acres cleared; one of 160 acres, with about thirty-five acres cleared, and another of seventy-three acres, with thirty-five acres ready for cultivation. Mr. Ketner can feel proud of his possessions, as he has made it all by his own exertions and good management since the war. He is one of Lawrence County's representative farmers, and a man much thought of and respected in his community. In 1863 he enlisted in the Confederate army, and served until the final surrender, when he was paroled at Shreveport, La., in June, 1865. His record through the war is one of the best, and he was always in the thick of battle at Pilot Knob, Pine Bluff, Little Rock, Independence and Price's raids through Missouri. Mr. Ketner returned to his home after the war had ended, and was there married to his present wife, a widow lady, of Tennessee, formerly Mrs. Mary Lawson. He is the father of seven children by his first marriage: George H., J. Daniel, Mahala, wife of Clay Holden; Jesse A., Jane, wife of George Caspar; Margaret, wife of James Nunley; Amanda, wife of Elihu Davis; and there is also one child by the last marriage, Nettie, a miss of five years. Mr. Ketner is a member of the Old School Presbyterian Church, and also of the Agricultural Wheel, while Mrs. Ketner attends the Baptist Church.

Henry L. Lady, farmer and stock raiser, is a son of Henry and Irene (Fried) Lady, of Tennessee and Germany, respectively. After their marriage the parents moved to Lyon County, Ky., where their son, Henry L., was born, December 26, 1848. The elder Lady has resided in that county ever since, with his wife, both having reached an advanced age, and is one of the most prominent men in that section. He held the office of coroner for sixteen consecutive years, and at the present time he is still a vigorous, active old gentleman. Henry L. Lady remained with his parents until he had reached his twenty-fourth year, having, in the meantime, all the advantages of a good common school education, and also attending the Eddyville Academy. He left his native place in 1874, and came to Arkansas, where he remained the first year with an uncle, and then located on the place upon which he now resides. On March 29, 1876, he was married in Lawrence County to Miss Alice A. Cunningham, of South Carolina, and settled on a farm with his bride, who died on November 23, 1879. He was married a second time, his next wife being Miss Emeline Kenion, of Lawrence County, who owned the place upon which Mr. Lady resided on his arrival with the first wife. They have 100 acres of fine land under cultivation, and since his arrival, Mr. Lady has greatly improved and built up the place. He also has 200 acres of other land under cultivation and six tenement houses, besides his own residence. Mr. and Mrs. Lady have no children of their own, but have adopted two orphans, one of them thirteen years of age and the other three years, and are giving them a comfortable home and all the advantages that can be had. They are generous, kind-hearted people, and much respected by their neighbors. Mr. Lady is a member of the Knights of Honor, and also an active man in all enterprises working for the welfare of his community.

Isaac Less, of Walnut Ridge, farmer and real estate dealer, was born in Germany in the year 1849. He was thoroughly instructed in mercantile branches in early life, and when in his seventeenth year, he left his native country for America, where he entered into partnership with Marcus Berger (now of Jonesboro), at Greenville, Ill. In 1875 he came to Walnut Ridge with Mr. Berger, and established a general store under the firm name of Berger & Less, at a time when that town had a population of about 200. They continued under that name until 1880, when the stock and trade were purchased by Mr. Less, who remained in the business for eight years, when fire burned him out; fortunately, however, it was covered by a valuable land, and contributes liberally of his means to support worthy enterprises. He is spoken very highly of in the community in which he lives for his many worthy traits of character, and he and wife are earnest members of the Christian Church. Politically he is a Democrat.

Dr. James M. Nichols is a practicing physician worthy of all confidence, and his name in Sevier and surrounding counties has become almost a household word. He was born in Mount Pleasant, Tenn., February 18, 1834, a son of Levi A. and Rachel (Crawford) Nichols, the former born in Kentucky October 28, 1804, and the latter in Tennessee September 12, 1800. Their marriage was celebrated October 28, 1831, and in time the following family of children clustered about their hearthstone: Daniel C. (deceased), James M., Aleck (deceased), Mary E. (wife of J. N. Spam), Margaret J., and Barton (deceased). The father was a farmer, and he and wife at the time of their deaths, which occurred January 5, 1886, and March 6, 1850, respectively, were members of the Christian Church. Dr. James M. Nichols was educated in Nashville, Tenn., and was graduated from the medical department of the Nashville University, also from the Missouri State Medical College. In 1867 he emigrated to Arkansas, and began his practice in Sevier County, but in connection with this has followed the occupation of farming and is the owner of 338 acres of good land, of which 160 are under cultivation. In both these callings he has been remarkably successful, and is now in independent circumstances. He was married to Miss Maggie I. Simms October 28, 1867. She was born in Tennessee January 4, 1846, and has borne the Doctor ten children: Frank W., Levi A. and Susan E., living, and Mary (died June 8, 1890), William L., Patsey, James M., Milton, Campbell and an infant deceased. Dr. Nichols is a member of the Masonic fraternity. During the war he served in the Confederate army, enlisting in 1862 under Gen. Forrest, in Company E, Ninth Tennessee Cavalry, and some of the principal battles in which he participated are Thompson's Station, where he served as orderly sergeant, and was wounded in the left shoulder; Chickamauga, Knoxville, Resaca, Peach Tree Creek, and at the time of the surrender was at Gainesville, Ala. He was elected first lieutenant March 20, 1863. After the war he returned home and began his practice, and was in this State during the reconstruction period.

A. J. Park was born in the Palmetto State in 1820, a son of Joseph and Margaret (McMullam) Park, the former of whom was a participant in the War of 1812 under Gen. Jackson, and died in 1838, his wife passing from life in 1860. Until he was fifteen years of age the subject of this sketch resided in his native State, but he then went to Alabama, and ten years later removed to Mississippi, his home being in that State for fourteen years. In 1861 he joined Capt. Jones' company, Dawson's regiment, but later became a member of McKain's regiment, the first engagement in which he participated being at Backbone Ridge and the next at Prairie de Ann. He was then at Poison Springs, Mark's Mill and Jenkins' Ferry, after which he started with Price on his raid through Missouri, and was in the engagement at Independence, prior to this, however, participating in the engagements at Pilot Knob and on the Big Blue. Mr. Park finally found himself near Waco, Tex., and there he received his discharge, and returned home, but soon after came to Arkansas, and began tilling the soil, and is now the owner of 320 acres of rolling land. In 1843 he was married to Miss Stanbau, of Alabama, who died in 1852, and in 1864 Mr. Park wedded his present wife, a Mrs. Jackson, by whom he has three children: Ada (wife of S. F. Smith), Frank (who was married to a Miss Forwood) and Baldy. Mr. Park is a Democrat, and in 1886 was elected to the office of justice of the peace. He and his wife belong to the Christian Church.

John D. Perry, farmer and stock-raiser, Ben Lomond, Ark. . Among the younger agriculturists of this township who are rapidly coming to the front as progressive and industrious farmers and stock men, we can not fail to mention John D. Perry, now in his twenty-first year. He was born on the farm where he now lives in 1869, and is the son of Capt. Benjamin H. and Elizabeth (Davis) Perry. Capt. Perry was born in Henry County, Ky., December 27, 1827, and at the age of twelve left school and lived with an uncle until eighteen years of age. Then he and a younger brother, Elijah R. Perry, left home and found positions on a Kentucky River steamboat. Capt. B. H. followed steamboating on the Kentucky, Arkansas, White and Mississippi Rivers until the breaking out of the war. At that time he owned and operated the "James Howard" between New Orleans and Fort Smith. This boat was burned during the war. Soon after the war began Capt. Perry began speculating in negroes, bought a large number and took them to Texas, intending to sell them after the war at a big profit. In this he lost many thousands of dollars. After the war he settled near where Ben Lomond now is, engaged in farming, and speculating in lands, and there made his future home, although he was merchandising at Dardanelle part of the time. He died January 9, 1881, leaving a widow and eight children. He had married, in 1864, Miss Elizabeth Davis, a native of Centre Point, and the daughter of John and Mary J. Davis, natives of North Carolina and Tennessee, respectively. Mr. and Mrs. Davis were married in Mississippi, and went from there to what is now Howard County in 1841. There Mr. Davis died August 22, 1848, but his widow is still living and is sixty-eight years of age. She is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Mr. Davis was a farmer. Of the eight children born to Mr. and Mrs. Perry seven are now living—five sons and two daughters: Anna (wife of S. H. Numley, of Oklahoma), Lucy (deceased), Elijah R., Benjamin H., Bessie, James E. and Lewis M. Mr. Perry's brother, Capt. Elijah R., followed steamboating on the various Western rivers nearly all his life, and now plies between Camden and New Orleans. He is one of the wealthiest men of the last named city, where he has large interests. The grandfather of our subject, Elijah Perry, was an early settler of Kentucky, where he followed flatboating to New Orleans while his wife managed the farm. He died in his native State before the birth of his son, Elijah Perry. John D. Perry was educated at Louisville, Ky., Keatchie, La., and Fayetteville, Ark. He is a young man of much natural ability, which has been developed, and which has fitted him for almost any station in life. He is the owner of 500 acres of land, has about 400 acres under cultivation, and has excellent buildings on the same. He is engaged in breeding a good grade of horses and mules, and makes a specialty of this. In politics he is Democratic.

H. C. Pride was born in Alabama, in 1822, to Burton and Elizabeth (Houston) Pride, the latter being a distant relative of Gen. Sam Houston, of Texas. Burton Pride was a soldier in the Revolutionary War, and was sixty-three years of age when his youngest son, H. C. Pride, was born, the latter being fifty-seven when his youngest son first saw the light. The former died in May, 1835. The subject of this memoir spent his youth in the State of Alabama, but his advantages for acquiring an education were quite limited. He became a soldier in the Mexican War in 1846, joining Hunter's company, Yell's regiment, and was in the engagement at Buena Vista, under Taylor. At the end of twelve months he was discharged, as his term of enlistment had expired, and he came soon after to Arkansas, and here has since devoted his attention to farming. He has always been a Democrat, and on this ticket he was elected, in August, 1860, to the office of county sheriff, which position he held until after the close of the late war. He is a member of the A. F. & A. M., and is an enterprising and public-spirited gentlemen. He was married, in 1850, to Miss Harriet Locke, a daughter of John Locke, of Alabama, but prior to her death, which occurred July 13, 1857, she bore him one child: John (who was married to Miss Elizabeth Smith). His second union took place June 13, 1858, his wife being Miss Mary Swift, of Tennessee. She was reared in Arkansas, and was a daughter of Surge Smith, a native of the former State. To Mr. and Mrs. Pride the following children have been born: Mary, Sarah E., Burton, Eliza E., Hattie Locke, Clyde and Henry C.

J. N. Pride belongs to that sturdy and independent class, the farmers of Arkansas, and is now actively engaged in cultivating an estate, comprising 315 acres of fine bottom land, 115 acres of which are under cultivation, well adapted to the purposes of general farming. His land will average one-half bale of cotton to the acre, and from twenty to twenty-five bushels of corn. He was born in Sevier County, Ark., in 1851, a son of Henry and Harriet (Locke) Pride, and here he received the advantages of an excellent education. Upon attaining his eighteenth year, he determined to start forth in search of Dame Fortune in his own behalf, and as the calling of a farmer was one with which he was thoroughly familiar, he decided to make this his life work. His first endeavors were on a farm of 600 acres, near where he now lives, but he disposed of this property at a later period and bought the farm on which he is now living, which is one of the finest and most productive in the county. He has always been a Democrat, has held a number of local offices in his district, and socially is a member of the Masonic fraternity. His marriage to Miss Mary E. Smith took place January 1, 1873, she being a daughter of Dr. W. J. Smith, of Sevier County, and the following are the names of the children who have been born to their union: William Henry, Lulu B., Katy, Oscar F., John F., James, Morgan and Marshal.

W. F. Roberts, Jr., the gentlemanly superintendent, and part owner of the antimony mines of Sevier and Howard Counties, was born in the Keystone State September 20, 1853, and is the son of Prof. W. F. Roberts, who was one of the pioneer geologists of Pennsylvania. His mother is a direct descendant of the well-known Brodhead family of Pennsylvania. The elder Roberts was among the first to locate much of the mineral wealth of that State, and has since that time made reconnoissanee of many of the other

Mary, here is the Nunley story that Howard Nunley wrote about our Tenn. Nunleys after he returned home from his trip to Tenn. It doesn't pertain to your line, but you might enjoy it anyway. I like his idea of putting one's pedigree chart in the back of their personal story. You will notice that he mentions your Joseph A. Nunneley in Franklin Co., hoping that he was Howard's own long lost Joseph. I called and told H. that Jos. A. is your own ancestor (Anderson's son) so he (Howard) wouldn't get his hopes up for nothing. No wonder genealogy is such a fascinating hobby - there are so many leads that turn out to be false ones.

OUR NUNLEY TRAIL

Written and Compiled by
Ola Mae and Howard Nunley

AUTHORS NOTE

This is not meant to be a conclusive story of the NUNLEY FAMILY. It is just a resumé upon which we hope to expand, with time and knowledge to encompass all NUNLEYS in America. The information given in this paper is documented by county, state or federal records or family records. We try to clarify the validity of a story or opinion when not documented. All information has been verified by Ola Mae Nunley, David Nunley or myself.

If mistakes are made and you have information to correct them, we welcome it. We welcome any information however small or great. Your contribution or participation is solicited.

OUR NUNLEY TRAIL

The surname NUNLEY variously spelled, Nunnally, Nunley, Nunelly, Nunnerly, Nunnery, Nunnallee, is of English origin, and was according to English records 1586 to 1700 spelled, Nonily, Nunley, Nunily, Nunner, Nunnery, Nunney, Nunale, Nunnily and Nunnalea.

In 1616 there was in existence a village Nunnelly in the Parish of Salop, County of Shropshire England.

There came to Virginia in 1630 a Richard NUNNLEY and from him sprang all NUNLEYS, of all spellings, extensive research has revealed no other source.

My records are complete from my generation to Thomas NUNLEY of Rutherford County North Carolina 1789. From Richard NUNLEY 1630 until after the American Revolution the family line was intact in Virginia. It would appear that no NUNLEY left Virginia until after that time. In 1789 Thomas, John and Archelus NUNLEY were in the tax list and appeared in the 1800 census of North Carolina. Many records are in evidence, e.g., land records, witness to will and sale of property, etc. It would seem that these men were brothers, although, as yet, no proof exists. Thomas was our ancestor, we do not know who he married but I suspect he married a Cherokee girl.

In 1801 Henry J. A. Hill from North Carolina came to that place in Warren County Tennessee since known as Hill's Creek and there located a tract of land described as "a great stretch of cane brake penetrated only by Indian paths and extending from the headwaters of Hill's Creek to Martin's ford on the Collin's River." In the spring of 1802 he returned to the County bringing his wife and four small children and occupied the house previously built at Martin's ford. On one of the journeys into the County, 1801-02, Henry Hill was accompanied by a large party of men who made the first settlement in the Collins River valley. Among these first settlers were Bess, Boulding, Martins, Dykes, Cartwright, Tate, Fults, NUNLEY and many others. [1]

According to existing land records in 1810, Thomas NUNLEY was granted land in Warren County, by Governor Willie Blount of Tennessee. This land lay in a valley on top of a mountain and was surrounded by other mountains atop of the Cumberland plateau. To this day these mountains carry the name of various NUNLEYS and other kin. I saw the small fields they farmed and the forests where they hunted game for their food. I suppose you might call them hunter/farmers. Here they had their school and all other needed accommodations of life, needing only to leave the mountain maybe once a year. In later years as families increased they expanded their land holdings to the valleys below the mountain and as incredulous as it may seem the majority of this land is still held by NUNLEYS or Nunley kin.

1. McMINNVILLE AT A MILESTONE, by Womack

Thomas NUNLEY had six children, all born in North Carolina, William B., Thomas Jr., James, Fanny II (Married Arch Clark), Elizabeth (married Abraham Hobbs), Sally (married Benjamin Smith). No other mention is made of Thomas Sr. until 1850 where the above children sold their fathers land to William NUNLEY.

William B. NUNLEY, born 3 Oct. 1801 in North Carolina, is our line from Thomas. He married Sarah Jane SMARTT, daughter of Reuben Smartt. Their children were Mary born 1825 (married George Argo); Cynthia (married a Gibbs, came to Texas); Willis (1st married Elizabeth NUNLEY, daughter of William NUNLEY, 2nd married Nancy Brown); Joseph born 1830 (married Savannah Gibbs);

John born 12 April 1832 (married Mary Jane Smith, daughter of Thomas C. and Martha Smith, 17 November 1854 in Grundy County Tennessee); Rachel born 1836 (married Adrian Smartt 14 July 1855); Elizabeth born 1836 (1st married John Smartt 3 June 1854, 2nd Calvin Hobbs); Sarah Jane born 1839 (married Nelson Hobbs, 13 Jan. 1857); Frances (Franky) born 10 Feb. 1843 (married Daniel Fults, 27 Sept 1862, died 2 Feb. 1923 in Grundy County Tennessee); William C. born 1847 (married Mary Rankin); Nancy P. born 1852 (married 1st Polk Fults, 23 Apr. 1870, 2nd married Lawson Fults, 24 Sept 1876).

William B. NUNLEY, fought in the Civil War in the First Alabama Vidette Co. Union Army. According to his enlistment certificate he was 5 feet 7 inches tall, black hair, black eyes, and dark complexion. Sarah Jane SMARTT NUNLEY died on 3 June 1866 and William B. married Margaret Ark 16 Sept 1867. William B. died 15 Dec. 1889 and is buried in the Jesse NUNLEY Cemetary in NUNLEY Cove. He died at Calvin Hobbs house and Calvin later told about how he carried the coffin from town and washed and dressed William B. and laid him in his coffin.

Let me inject at this point about the Civil War loyalties. Many NUNLEYS felt very strongly about the war, many had Union sympathies, especially older ones. Wiliford NUNLEY was almost beaten to death because he would not join the Southern Army, but he did not want to join either side. Many were forced to join one side or the other. From the impression I get the NUNLEYS wanted to be left alone.

William B's son John is our ancestor. He and Mary Jane Smith were married 17 November 1854 in Altamont where they lived until 1883 when they left for Missouri (this is not substantiated, only a family story), but they were in Arkansas about 12 years. To this union were born Joseph Farris born 14 Apr. 1859 (married Martha Wayne Norman, 19 Sept 1885) died 10 Feb. 1932; Jasper Newton born 8 July 1864 (married Georgia (Jenny) Hedrick, 14 Nov 1886), died 19 July 1935; William B. born 30 May 1867 (married Mary Addie Summey, 25 Nov. 1903), died 1929 and Nora Ann born 16 Feb 1869 (married Samuel Richards), died 4 June 1916. In an old bible of Nora Ann NUNLEY Richards, now owned by Agnes Richards Brown, were two more children, Emsley H. NUNLEY, born 14 Apr. 1855 and John W. NUNLEY born 20 Dec. 1861. Also listed were George W. Smartt and Martha E. Smartt, children of John's sister Rachel NUNLEY and Adrian Smartt, who died before 1870. The children were living with John in the 1880 census.

John was a farmer and by the standards of that day seemed to be successful. The 1870 census reported his worth as $1500, this was not bad for a Southern man after the Civil War. He lost a leg in the Civil War probably at the battle of Stone River (Murfreesboro, Tenn.). If the stories are correct he was wounded when a cannon ball knocked the top from a tree and it fell on him. The story goes that his officer told him to use his rifle for a crutch and walk home (Stone River is about thirty miles from Altamont). He arrived home and found his house burned. Mary Jane and children living in a nigger shack. He hid in a cave above the house and one morning a troop of soldiers rode up. The officer talked to Mary Jane, apparently, he did not get the answer he wanted, so he slapped her. Some one shot him. I told this story to Leonard Smartt of Nunley Cove. He said, "Could be, there is a cave over yonder where they hid in the Civil War." Sometime between 1870 and 1880, John moved to the vicintity of Tracey City where he and his sons, Joseph, Jasper and William B. worked in the coke ovens. In 1883 they moved to Missouri, then to Arkansas. Joseph Farris married Martha in Searcy County Arkansas in 1885. They say John died in the Boston Mountains of Arkansas, this may have been Boston Township, Franklin County. There was a Joseph A. NUNLEY living there. John had a brother Joseph that I have found no records on. Jasper Newton married Jenny Hedrick near Dardnell, Yell County Arkansas in 1886.

In about 1895 they moved to Grayson County Texas and lived near the little town of Howe. Joseph and Jasper paid taxes in Grayson County in 1895. Mary Jane, William B., Jasper and Joseph were on the tax list from 1898-1899. In the 1900 census Sam Richards, Nora Ann and their children were in Henderson County, Texas. Joseph, his family and William B. were in Smith County. Jasper Newton was on his way to Indian Territory with his family. They lived near Poarch in Greer County. We have not found them in the 1900 census. Lonnie NUNLEY, son of Jasper, tells a story, while on the trip to Indian Territory, one night the Indians tried to steal their horses and Jasper and the older boys ran them off with a shotgun, Lonnie was only three at this time and some would deny a memory like this, not me, for at 82 he is as bright as a new penny. Jasper returned to Texas in 1902 and until 1906 Joseph, Jasper, William B. and Sam Richards appear on the Smith County Texas tax rolls. In 1907, Jasper was in Delta County and Sam Richards was in Brown County in 1909. Mary Jane died 21 May 1912, near Blanket in Brown County and is buried in Moro Cemetary in an unmarked grave. 1910-12 William B., Joe and Jasper lived in Comanche County. Joseph later moved to Healdton, Oklahoma where he died 10 Feb. 1932. Nora Ann remained in Blanket, where she died 4 June 1916. William B. moved to Young County where he died in 1929. Jasper Newton moved to Young County, then to Pinon, New Mexico where they remained nineteen months, no rain, drinking water from a tank where ten thousand sheep watered. Jesse David NUNLEY, seventh son of Jasper, tells a story about the buggy and the mule. There seemed to be an extra mule and buggy and in those days no one drove a mule to a buggy, so Jesse being the youngest driver at sixteen, was elected to drive the mule. He drove all way to Pinon and back to Amarillo, Texas, where they lived during World War I. Some of them worked on the street hauling dirt, brick and such. Elisha, Farris, John and Fred went to war. Jasper, near the end of the war moved his family to Jack County. He remained in Jack and Young County until he died on the Miller place in Berwick, Jack County.

We returned this summer to where our forefathers were born and grew up. This was my life long dream. I walked the ground where my ancestors had worked, played and were put to rest. I saw the fields where they planted and the houses where they lived. Every where I looked I could see them, the mountains bear our name, the coves, street and drives and even a stadium is named NUNLEY . Everyone is kin, especially the founding families, Hobbs, Fults, Smartt, Meyers, Hughes and the NUNLEYS. One girl, we talked to, her father was a NUNLEY, her mother was a NUNLEY and she married a NUNLEY. Old Jeff NUNLEY near Pelham, Tenn. had this on his tombstone, "Some have children, some have none but I am the father of twenty-one."

We left Texas on 7 June 1980, arrived in McMinnville, 8 June, rented a mobile home for two weeks and immediately set out to see the country. We went "up on the mountain," to Altamont by the way of Viola, where William B and Sarah Jane Smartt NUNLEY lived their last days. Toured the mountain and headed for Nunley Cove near Irving College, returned to our trailer after dark.

We researched Court houses in Warren, Grandy and all surrounding Counties. McMinnville, we saw during an off period while our car was in the shop. We discovered an old two story brick house on top of a tall hill and Oren NUNLEY told me it was a NUNLEY house, built for a photographer. The stadium was named for Jesse L. NUNLEY superintendent of schools for forty years.

Friday 13 June, we went to Laager and Palmer in lower Grandy County to visit two old relatives, Jessie Turnage and Avis Meeks. Their gr.-gr. grandfather was William Smartt, brother to Sarah Jane Smartt NUNLEY. Their gr.-gr. grandfather was Jesse NUNLEY on one side of the family and Alexander NUNLEY on the other side. Jessie told us a story about old Jesse NUNLEY. It seems that the INDIAN NUNLEYS, up on the mountain, came to get Jesse to help them get a bear out of a hole, so after they killed the bear, Jesse was invited to eat, as he told his grandchildren, he did not want to eat but you did not refuse an Indians invitation. As the story goes there was a pan of dough for hoe cakes on the floor, the dogs came by and ate some from it, then the old lady picked up the pan and cooked the cakes. Jesse said it was hard to eat but you can't make an Indian angry. I wonder who was calling who an Indian, Jesse was a quarter blood Cherokee.

Jessie and Avis are fine folks, lived next door to each other and took care of their ninety four year old mother. We had a good dinner and talked many hours about the family. We returned home by the way of NUNLEY Cove, came down the mountain by Smith flat, where Mary Jane Smith NUNLEY was raised. We stopped at Byron Hobbs place on NUNLEY Creek. Byron is eighty-four, lives in the old Jesse NUNLEY house, he and his wife were friendly people, we enjoyed talking to them. We met their daughter and her husband Leonard Smartt and daughter Joan. Mrs. Hobbs, father was George W. Smartt, son of Rachel NUNLEY Smartt. Byron was also kin but did not know how. We really had a visit, Leonard took me across the fields to the old Jesse NUNLEY Cemetary. Here William B. and Sarah Jane are buried. Gr. Grandmother Martha Smith is buried there and many more. The cemetary covers about ten acres and is grown up in trees, weeds and snakes. I met Jesse Woodly, the owner, his mother was a NUNLEY. Leonard said his children were triple NUNLEY and triple Smartts. He told us if we could come back early Monday morning he would take us to the original NUNLEY place, where the first NUNLEY settled. Monday morning bright and early we were at Irving College where we met Leonard, Joan and his granddaughter in their four wheel drive pickup. Up the mountain we went, no road, just a gap in the forest. At times Ola Mae was not sure we would make it but we rode to the top. This is a beautiful spot, the valley is like a natural bowl with hills all around, tall pines, maple and chestnut trees the old houses are gone, the last one blown away in a tornado three years ago. There was a grave yard there but, the weather had made the stones where they could not be read. We had lunch and went back down the mountain.

On Saturday we went to Monteagle, the highest point between Chicago and Miami, to visit John Campbell and family. He is NUNLEY kin. We talked, ate lunch and went to Tracy City to visit his uncle, Jim NUNLEY, who is eighty-two, but missed him. We visited with his family and returned to McMinnville.

Sunday 15th we went to Beersheba to the Methodist church to hear Wille B. NUNLEY preach. We arrived too early and decided to go to some cemetaries before church, we got busy and before we knew it time had passed and so had church. I had to go back on Monday and apoligize to Willie B. We went to Summitville in Coffee County in the afternoon to see Oren NUNLEY, age about eighty-two. Arrived about 2 P.M., they were having lunch, nothing would do them but for us to have lunch. After lunch we talked and had a good time.

Monday after we returned from Altamont we went to see one of Uncle Willis NUNLEY's grandsons, he is eighty-three but was not alert enough to tell us anything. We returned to our trailer and decided to start home on Tuesday 17 June. We returned home by the way of Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, arrived home about 5 P.M. 19 June.

We will not soon forget the wild roses that grew on the roadside or the bright sweet peas, the fragrant honey suckles, the green forest and the wild cherry trees red with fruit. We did not go to Nashville, we did not go to the Grand Old Opry, but we did find some grand old folks and some grand new folks and got a better view backwards and a gran view forward of life present and past.

in the Sunday school and organized and became superintendent of the Mission Sunday schools. Some of his best work has been accomplished as superintendent of the Laird Memorial City Night School, which was established in 1900 and has continued with great success to the present time. This school, supported by private contributions and donations, is conducted for the purpose of supplementing the education of boys and girls who are compelled to leave day schools and go to work. There are also adult classes for both men and women. It has become one of the most important educational organizations in the city. Some of Danville and other cities most useful citizens are among its graduates. It has also done some good work in the program of Americanization by teaching the English language to foreigners. Doctor Sydnor is well versed in literature and wields a facile pen and has contributed a number of articles to the press. He belongs to a college fraternity, and is a member of the State and National Dental societies and is a former president of the Tri City Dental Society, representing the dental professions in Lynchburg, Roanoke and Danville. Doctor Sydnor in 1902 married Mrs. Olivia (Voss) Lindsey.

Martha Washington College. Hundreds of women all over the South have been indebted to Martha Washington College at Abingdon for the inspiration, the ideals and the intellectual training that have enabled them to fit into and successfully perform their role in life's activities. The history of the college covers a period of more than sixty years. Originally the school was projected by the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in 1853, but in 1858, through the instrumentality of Rev. E. E. Wiley, the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, acquired the property and the first session of the school was opened in March, 1860, in the former home of Col. Thomas L. Preston. Rev. Mr. Wiley was for some years president. Since January 28, 1919, Martha Washington College and Emory and Henry College have been under the direction of one board of trustees, though otherwise the institution preserves its individuality and its educational traditions. Martha Washington College has all the facilities of a woman's college of the best type, and particularly in recent years its curriculum and policies have been adopted to provide the broad and many sided education required by the modern young woman preparing for a life of usefulness. The official statement of the Martha Washington ideal, which is translated into and made a definite part of the weekly and daily programs, is: "That our young women shall possess a personality that harmoniously combines the physical, the intellectual, the moral, the recreational, the social, the civic, the esthetic, and the actively religious aspects of life. This is Christian education."

The president of Martha Washington College since 1922 has been Joseph Emory Avent. Mr. Avent was born in Wake County, North Carolina, April 3, 1878, of Colonial ancestry. There is record of a Col. Thomas Avent who received a large grant of land from The Crown in Southeast Virginia about 1698. The Avents originated in France, went from there to England and thence to Colonial America. Henry Evans Avent, grandfather of President Avent, was born in Chatham County, North Carolina, in 1827, and spent all his life there as a farmer. He was a Confederate soldier throughout the period of the war between the states, and died in 1901. His wife was Mary Ann Buchanan, born in Chatham County in 1833, and died in 1907. Their son, James W. Avent, was born in Chatham County, April 22, 1856, and as a young man moved to Wake County, where he married and was engaged in farming until 1921, when he retired and now lives at Raleigh. He is a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and a democrat. His wife, Martha Cornelia Womble, was born in Wake County, October 3, 18[illegible], and died there April 6, 1918. Joseph Emory is the oldest of their children; Carley Dawson died in infancy; Effie Florence is the wife of William H. Thompson, superintendent of public roads and living at Raleigh; Inez May is the wife of Joseph E. Sawyer, of Raleigh, commissioner of the Automobile License Department of the State of North Carolina; Mamie Lee is the wife of Leslie C. Parker, a railway accountant at Baltimore, Maryland; and Blanche died in infancy.

Joseph Emory Avent grew up in the rural districts of Wake County, attended the public schools and did much of his work in preparation for college at home. For some time he was a student in the Raleigh Male Academy, and in 1901 graduated Bachelor of Arts from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. In the twenty or more years since he left the University Mr. Avent has been continuously a student as well as a teacher and school administrator. During 1912-13 he attended the Teachers College at Columbia University, and in [illegible] was granted the Master of Arts degree. In [illegible] he was again in residence at Columbia University and has finished the residence and course requirements for the degree Doctor of Philosophy and is now engaged on his thesis.

During 1901-02 Mr. Avent was principal of the high school at Morven, North Carolina; was superintendent of the graded schools at Maxton in his home state from 1902 to 1905; was superintendent of graded schools at Morganton, North Carolina, from 1906 to 1909, and superintendent of city schools at Goldsboro, North Carolina, from 1909 to [illegible]. He has been identified with educational work in Virginia for ten years. From 1913 to [illegible] he was professor of education, and from 1917 to [illegible] was also director of training schools at the State Teachers College at Radford, Virginia. In July, [illegible], he came to his present post as president of Martha Washington College. Mr. Avent was a member of the Field Staff of the Virginia Educational Survey Commission of 1919. He is author of "Principles of Teaching Practicalized," "The Educational Situation in Virginia," "The Arithmetic Used," "Planning Teaching," and other bulletins published by the State Teachers' College of Virginia.

For many years he has been active in Sunday school and church work, is lay leader for the [illegible] Conference, and while at Radford he organized an interdenominational Sunday School Teachers' Training Course, which was endorsed by the General Sunday School Board of five denominations. He is a democrat. He belongs to the Kappa Delta Pi fraternity, made up principally of normal school graduates; also the Phi Delta Kappa, an association of men engaged in educational research. During the World war he was chairman of the Radford Chapter of the Red Cross and took an active part in other war programs.

Mr. Avent married at Chapel Hill, North Carolina, August 1, 1901, Miss Rosa Spencer [illegible], daughter of Foster and Sallie (Davis) [illegible], both now deceased. Her father was a cabinet maker. Mrs. Avent finished her education in the [illegible] College at Greensboro, North Carolina.

Hervey William Nunley, principal of the high school at Rye Cove, lives at Lodi and is a member of a well known family of Washington County.

His grandfather, William Henry Nunley, was a prosperous farmer in Washington County and lived at Glade Spring. He served all through the war as a Confederate soldier. His wife, Elizabeth [illegible], was born at Catawba, Roanoke County, and is now living at Glade Spring. They reared a family of five sons and three daughters, and those still living are: Charles W.; Daniel, a farmer at Johnson City, Tennessee; Arthur, a farmer at Glade Spring; the wife of David Day, a farmer at Jonesboro, Tennessee.

Charles W. Nunley, father of Hervey W., was born in Wythe County, Virginia, May 15, 1866, and has been a resident of the Lodi community of Washington County since 1897. He is a prosperous farmer, owning his farm four and one-half miles southwest of Lodi. In politics he votes as a republican, is a member of the Woodmen of the World, and an active and liberal member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Charles W. Nunley married Mary [illegible], who was born at Lodi, March 6, 1869. They had four children, Hervey William being the oldest; Elizabeth Lee is a student in Marion College at Marion, Virginia; Charles Lewis died when three years old; and Margaret Lillian is a student in the high school at Damascus, Virginia.

Hervey William Nunley was born March 9, 1898, and was reared on his father's farm. He attended the public schools, graduated from the high school at Damascus in 1916, and afterwards entered Emory and Henry College at Emory, Virginia. He took the classical course, graduating Bachelor of Arts in 1921, and was a member of the Calleopean Literary Society. Mr. Nunley, who is unmarried, has demonstrated unusual qualifications as an educator. While at Emory and Henry College he served as assistant instructor in biology during his sophomore and junior years, and as assistant instructor in chemistry in his senior year. In 1921 he was elected principal of the Willis High School in Floyd County, and left there in 1922 to become principal of the Rye Cove High School in Scott County. As head of this school he has supervision over a staff of eight teachers, and the scholarship enrollment is about one hundred and sixty. Mr. Nunley is a republican, a member of the Lodi Methodist Episcopal Church and belongs to the Virginia State Teachers' Association.

Achilles L. Tynes, M. D., whose active experience as a physician and surgeon covers a period of a quarter of a century, has been a resident of the City of Staunton since 1908. He was born March 11, 1873, on a farm near Tazewell, Tazewell County, son of Achilles J. and Harriet L. (Fudge) Tynes.

Achilles James Tynes, his father, was born November 29, 1833, at Shawsville, Montgomery County, Virginia. He lived in Roanoke, Montgomery and Botetourt counties until about 1858, in which year he moved to Tazewell County. He was there when the war broke out between the states. Early in the struggle he raised a company of volunteers, was elected its captain, and at the close of the war was acting major in McCausland's Brigade of the Confederate army. He was present at the burning of Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, and continued as a member of General McCausland's staff until his surrender with General McCausland at Charleston, West Virginia. Following the war he became one of Tazewell County's leading business men. He was a promoter and operator of woolen mills and street car lines, and had other important business interests in that and adjoining counties. His long and useful career came to a close in his eighty-first year, in 1914. Major Tynes was a man of deep religious feeling, served many years as an elder of the Presbyterian Church, was a Knights Templar Mason, and took a good citizen's part in civic affairs, though he refused all offers of public office. Educational work interested him greatly and he was a stanch and generous friend of the public school.

Major Tynes married Harriet L. Fudge, and they enjoyed more than a half a century of married companionship prior to his demise in 1914. She was a native of Tazewell County and died in her eighty-[illegible] year, July 1, 1922. Of their eleven children nine survive: Buford C., an attorney of Huntington, West Virginia; Lacey A., sales agent for Ford automobiles at Tazewell, War and Richlands; Conrad F., who is engaged in the feed and coal business at Bluefield, West Virginia; Dr. Achilles L.; and five daughters.

Achilles L. Tynes after his education in the home schools entered Hampden-Sidney College, where one of his schoolmates was Alfred J. Morrison. He taught a term of school at Bluefield, then pursued his medical course in the University College of Medicine at Richmond, where he was graduated with the degree Doctor of Medicine in the class of 1898. Subsequently Doctor Tynes took post-graduate work in New York City and Boston. His first ten years of practice were at Fishersville, and in 1908 he changed his residence and place of professional activities to Staunton. Doctor Tynes is a member of the Augusta County Medical Society, the Medical Society of Virginia and the American Medical Association. He is a member of the State Board of Health and also a member of the Board of Trustees of his Alma Mater, Hampden-Sidney College. He was one of the early members of the State Medical Council. During the World war he served as a member of the County Advisory Board, and in August, 1918, volunteered for active service and was given a captain's commission in the United States Army Medical Corps. He was sent for training to Camp Greenleaf, and then to the base hospital at Camp Bowie, Fort Worth, Texas, where he remained until June 1, 1919. He received his honorable discharge on June 18th, at Camp Meade.

Doctor Tynes married Miss Margaret E. Finley, daughter of the late Rev. G. W. Finley, D. D., of Tinkling Springs, Virginia. The four children born to their marriage are: Harriet L., Margaret E., George W. Finley and Achilles L. Tynes.

William Young Noell is one of the veteran and honored representatives of the tobacco industry at Danville, in which important city of Virginia he has been actively identified with this line of industry for thirty-eight years.

Mr. Noell was born in Halifax County, Virginia, December 5, 1854, and is a son of James D. and Virginia (Penick) Noell, who passed their entire lives in this state, the father having been a tailor by trade. James Noell, paternal grandfather of the subject of this review, was born and reared in France and was a young man when he came to Virginia and settled in Charlotte County. Mrs. Virginia (Penick) Noell was of English ancestry.

The eldest in a family of four children, of whom two are now living, William Y. Noell was reared and educated in his native county and was a youth when he came to Danville and took a clerical position in a dry goods store. Here he initiated his independent business career by turning his attention to the buying and selling of leaf tobacco. Later he traveled through the West as salesman for the Danville tobacco house of Charles Conrad & Sons. Finally he formed a partnership with John E. Hughes, with whom he continued to be associated in the general leaf tobacco trade for a period of nineteen years, under the firm title of John E. Hughes & Company. Since his retirement from this firm Mr. Noell has continued independently in the same line of business at Danville, his operations being of broad scope and entailing the retention of a large force of employes. Mr. Noell has never wavered in his loyal allegiance to the democratic party, and he and his wife have long been zealous members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. In former years he was affiliated with various fraternal organizations, but in none of these does he now maintain active membership.

In 1878 was solemnized the marriage of Mr. Noell and Miss Hattie B. Lovelace, who was reared at Chatham, this state, a representative of old and

OBITUARY

John Orvin Nunneley, who was born Aug. 7, 1901, near Keystone, Okla., died November 23, 1921 at his father's home near Keystone, Okla. He was the twenty-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Nunneley, who have recently identified with the Church of God at Keystone.

John Orvin was sick only a few days with typhoid fever. His death threw a dark shadow of sorrow over the entire community, and especially over his young comrades. He was very much loved because of his quiet and good conduct at home and elsewhere, —so faithful to mother—and he was known as a model young man, concerning good morals. Up to his illness he had never professed Christianity. How sad, especially for one of his type. We are so hopeful he made his peace with God during his illness. For several days he seemed unable to talk, but tried so hard to say something to his mother, but we never knew what it was. He leaves a mother and a father, six brothers and two sisters, with a number of relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

His funeral service, which was a tender and melting scene, was attended by a concourse of friends and relatives, all of whom seemed deeply affected at that hour's service, and we believe that God strove mightily with the hearts of young men and women during that sad hour. The funeral service was conducted at the Baptist church, by the writer, after which his body was given into the hands of the Modern Woodmen, of which he was a member, to be laid away in the Sinnett cemetery.

WHO WE WERE / WHO WE ARE

A NUNNELEY FAMILY

Compiled by

Mary Metzinger Nunneley

1995

PREFACE

The name Nunneley/Nunnally/Nunnery is believed to have originated in England. This surname or one of its variations is found in the County of Shropshire. The earliest of this name in America appears in the Henrico County, Virginia court records in 1663 when Richard Nunnally was fined for nonpayment of Church Tithes. No ship passenger lists have been found with the name of this early Richard Nunnally on a manifest.

Our Nunneley family history begins with Anderson Nunneley who was born about 1765. It is not known for certain who his parents were or where he was born. His name first appears as a soldier in January 1782 as a member of Doherty's Company, 10th Regiment of the North Carolina Line during the Revolutionary War. On 25 April 1787, he is taxed as a male, over the age of 21, in Amelia County, Virginia. No additional public records have been located for him in Amelia County or in Nottoway County, Virginia (separated from Amelia County in 1788-89).

Early tax records in Amelia County (formed from Prince George and Brunswick counties in 1734) contain the following adult male Nunneleys: Joseph (1738); Nath. (1743); Zackariah (1752); Greif (1755); Alexander (1762); and, Isham (1762). The relationship between these Nunneleys and Anderson is not known.

Anderson Nunneley married Martha Baldwin, daughter of William and Elizabeth Baldwin of Amelia County, Virginia. The date of their marriage is not known, but they married after March, 1789. The will of William Baldwin is filed in Amelia County and dated 14 March 1789. He names his heirs as follows: wife, Elizabeth; son, John; son, George; son, William; daughter, Elizabeth Nunnally (she married on 25 February 1784 in Amelia County to Obadiah Nunnally, son of Joseph and Frances Nunnally); daughter Martha Baldwin; and, daughter, Rebecah Burkes.

This short history could not have been produced without the help of many generous people. I wish to express my gratitude to those who have shared so much information during the past 20 years.

The Nunneley family history will never be complete. The nature of continuing life will always add new members to our genealogy.

No records have been located for Anderson Nunneley after the 1820 Federal census of Hickman County, Tennessee. He may have died prior to 1824 when his wife, Martha Baldwin Nunneley appointed her brother, George Baldwin of Nottoway County, Virginia, as attorney to obtain her share of her father's estate.

Martha Baldwin Nunneley, wife of Anderson, was living on 6 June 1848 (deed to son, Andrew Jackson Baldwin Nunneley). She is not listed on the 1850 Federal census or the 1850 Federal Mortality Schedule (persons dying between 1 June 1849 and 1 June 1850). We might presume that she died between 6 June 1848 and 30 May 1849. It is of note that the deed of 6 June 1848 was recorded on 5 July 1848 (Deed Book M).

The two volume set of Hickman County, Tennessee cemetery records does not reveal a burial location for Anderson and Martha Nunneley. Several small family cemeteries are near the area of Gray's Bend where they owned land and resided. Some of the cemeteries are described as over-grown with broken stones and unable to be transcribed.

Their location of repose surely seems forgotten, but they will always be remembered through their many descendants.

[P. 113] John Hill. £17.19.0, bond, 29 May 1772. He went from Mecklenburg to Wilmington, N.C.

Isham Nunnallee. £7.19.0, bond, 24 May 1774. He was an overseer for Green Duke for several years during the war; was a man of no property at all. He ran away for debt soon after the close of the war from Warren to Mecklenburg, insolvent, and died there several years ago.

Claims of Dinwiddie Crawford and Company [pp. 118-22]:

[P. 118] David Christopher. £7.11.6, 1777. David Christopher of Granville says he never dealt with claimants at any of their stores. He had an uncle of the same name in Mecklenburg.

Claims of Dreghorn Murdock and Company [pp. 138-40]:

[P. 139] John Cole Junr. £3.19.7½, 1 Sept. 1875. A John Cole came from Virginia, probably Prince Edward County; he was an old man who used to live on Hawtree and died during the war. He was a very poor man, followed overseeing Negroes and had little or no property. His son and daughter are now living in Georgia on Savannah River above Augusta. What property they possess they acquired themselves. The old man left them nothing.

Report of Charles F. Bates

Copy of the will of Richard Randolph of Curls, dated 24 March 1786 and proved Henrico Co., Va., 3 July 1786 [pp. 1-8], of the inventory of his estate returned to Henrico Court 1 Oct. 1787 [p. 8-12], of the inventory of his estate in Prince Edward County returned 17 Oct. 1787 [pp. 13-17], of the inventory of his estate in Cumberland County returned 1 Oct. 1787 [pp. 17-19], of proceedings in suits against Richard Randolph in Henrico County [pp. 19-39] and of deeds and other records relating to him [pp. 39-45].

Claim of Alexander McCaul [pp. 45-46]:

Col. William Bowyer. In 1790 he was charged with six slaves over 16, six horses, and tracts of land containing 50, 146, 54, 15½ and 32 acres, all in Augusta County. From 1788 until 1795 at least a concern of which Col. Wm. Bowyer was principal, under the name of Mustoe & Chambris, procured large quantities of merchandize which it vended in Staunton and at the Warm Springs in Bath County. A partnership, lately dissolved, under the firm of Bowyer & Breckinridge procured for mountain land, etc., large quantities of merchandize from Philadelphia, New York, etc., several thousand pounds value of goods, which passed through Richmond to Staunton, which it vended. A sale of stock on hand was said to have been made to John Miller of Botetourt, his son-in-law, about the time execution issued. His houses, lands and other property in and near Staunton are said to be incumbered with debts.

Claims of Menzies and Todd [pp. 46-69]:

[Pp. 46-47] John Orr. £12.14.7½ and £15.6.1¼, bond.
